Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information provided in the pretrial services report and at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 60 year old U.S. citizen born in California. He has lived in New York, California, Nicaragua, and most recently Madrid. His parents are deceased. He has sporadic contact with a half-brother who lives in Gig Harbor, Washington. He has never married and has no children. Defendant is also a citizen of Nicaragua. He has traveled abroad extensively.
2. Defendant reports self-employment in Spain teaching English and tutoring. Prior to that he worked on the Pelican Eyes resort in Nicaragua, living off the resort resources and not taking a salary. He last worked in the United States as a paralegal from approximately 1982-89.
3. Defendant has no known criminal history, although evidence at the detention hearing revealed possible involvement in a fraudulent scheme in California.
4. Defendant has been charged with wire fraud and money laundering in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1343 and 1957. He faces a potential penalty of up to 20 years in prison.
5. Defendant has no family, employment, financial or other ties to the community. He potentially faces a lengthy prison sentence.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
